A Major Scale

Place the DEGREE CARD in position.

LOW hand:
Start with THUMB on top doh, and go DOWN.
Play slowly and evenly, but push thumb under quickly.
Keep your elbow still. Play thumb after finger 3.
Go down to bottom doh, then back up, using the same fingering.
Roll off with your hand loose at the end.

Notice how many black keys were in the scale.
How many from the 'small' group of 2?
How many from the 'big' group of 3?
Are they on the left or right side of these black key groups?
Each black key is named by the white key near it that is missed out.
Sharps # are for black keys higher than the naturals, flats ♭ for lower.

Say what is the KEY SIGNATURE:
"A major has a key signature of 3 sharps on the left".

HIGH hand:
Start with THUMB on top doh, and go UP.
Play slowly and evenly, but push thumb under quickly.
Keep your elbow still. Play thumb after finger 3.
Go up to the next doh, past the end of the degree card.
Then play back down, using the same fingering.
Roll off with your hand loose at the end.
Playing harmonica,
This is what they do.

Thins breath in,
Thicks breath out.
